Welcome Remarks by

H.E. Chea Chanto, Governor of the National Bank of Cambodia
On the Occasion of Signing Ceremony of Memorandum of Understanding on Bilateral Cooperation Between The National Bank of Cambodia and The Financial Services Commission of the Republic of Korea
Phnom Penh, 8th February 2013

- H.E Mr. Kyung Ho CHOO, Vice Chairman of Financial Services Commission
- His Excellency, Distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gengtlemen!

Today, we at the National Bank of Cambodia have a great honor and pleasure to host the bilateral meeting with the Financial Services Commission of the Republic of Korea, which will strengthen cooperation between the two institutions, covering technical assistance and the area of banking and financial supervision.

Both parties have spent times this morning to discuss and share views on the current situation of global financial and economic environment; the Korean and Cambodian banking and financial system development as well as measures to strengthen the strategic ties and partnership between the Financial Services Commission and the National Bank of Cambodia in order to ensure a close and effective cooperation between the two entities in the upcoming years. The meeting was very important because it provides us a forum to exchange up-to-date and useful information in the banking and financial sectors of the two nations and to discuss measures to tighten the strategic ties and partnership of the two institutions.

Today, the National Bank of Cambodia and the Financial Services Commission of the Republic of Korea come to a signing ceremony of Memorandum of Understanding on Bilateral Cooperation, covering technical assistance and mutual cooperation in the area of banking and financial supervision, in order to contribute to sustaining economic development for the benefit of the two institutions.

Thanks You!!!
